Covernment will not Permit the Public Burial of the Conspirators. WASHINGTON, July 10 .- The bodies of the four executed on Friday yet remain in graves within the argenal grounds. It appears that no JULIUS WINTER, ction is made to an order allowing the bodies to be delivered to families or friends claiming them for the purpose of quiet burial, but the au thorities will not consent to any demonstration or regular funeral, which it appears was intended by the relatives of Mrs. Surratt, Harrold and C. M.

Miss Surratt to day sent a note to General Hautrupt, thanking him in most heartfelt terms for kindness she had received at his hands, and facilities he has afforded her for remaining in the society of her mother, whilst in prison. The surgeons who examined the bedies state that they do not think the necks of any but Mrs Surratt were broken.

Eastern Naval Squadron to be Rein-forced-Indictments Against Rebels. NEW YORK, July 10 .- Our Eastern Naval Squadron will shortly be largely reinforced, and placed in a position of complete equality with PROTECTED the war fleets of England and France. The Government has decided to immediately muster out of service the remaining troops of the BY ROYAL PATENT ago disbanded. The principal part of that force, consolidated into a provissional Corps, under command of General Wright, is ordered into encampment on the Upper Potomac.

The Grand Jury of the United States District Court in Baltimore, has found an indictment for being engaged in the rebellion, against thirteen prominent Marylanders, including Bradley Johnson, and the raider Harvey Gilmore.

State of Affairs in Mississippi. NEW YORK, July 10 -The Herald's corres pondent, writing from Columbus, Miss., gives a picture of the manners, morals, habits, and characters of the Mississippi people, which is far from flattering. He finds among them little of that chivalry to which they have so long laid claim. He finds them ignorant and devoid of enterprise, the poor whites, in these respects, standing on a par with the negroes. What little there was of the institution called society in the State before, was composed of a few wealthy slaveholders and their families, and now that slavery has ceased to exist, the social establishment is completely disorganized, and some Yankee labor will be required to effect its resurrec-

The Captured Rebel Archives NEW YORK, July 10 -The Times' Washing ton special says: Major Shipman, of the First Wisconsin cavalry, arrived here last evening from Macon, having in charge forty boxes of the captured archives of the rebel government. They consist of a complete record of the proceedings by return mail. of the rebel Congress held at Montgomery in the spring of 1861. These documents were captured from Howell Cobb, in whose possession they had been placed for safe keeping. The official history of the rebel army of Tenuessee, comprising UNITED STATES MAIL LINE all its record while under the command of Bragg, Johnston and Hood, are part of this lot; also, books of the rebel Treasury Department, cap-tured at Albany, Georgia, which point they had reached as a part of Jeff Davis' train.

Pope's plan for the treatment of the Indians in the Northwest, of which we made mention a few days ago, meets with the approval of the President and Mr. Dole, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, He will not now visit the several tribes to make treaties as heretofore proposed. Mr. Dole has resumed his official duties as Commissioner. Gen. Pope proposes to put an end to Indian traders and place the trade in the bands of officers of the Govern-

> More Evidence Against Davis. WASHINGTON, July 10 .- Among the papers of Jeff Davis captured, Government has discovered several documents of vital importance in determining the guilt and complicity of Jeff Davis is the conspiracy plot. These documents are of such importance as probably to determine the authorities in favor of a trial of Davis before a Military Commission, upon the charge of assassination. If, however, it shall be determined to try him on the charge of treason he will be
